JOHN POTTER

These sheets were prepared in April 1995 in order to put in one place as much as we know about this rather shadowy ancestor of our branch of a Potter family. My grandmother, Ella Potter Miller, was a great-granddaughter of this person.

... Franklin Miller, Jr., Box 313, Gambier, OH 43022

In 1902 my father, Judge Franklin Miller of St. Louis, MO, made a chart of his family, in which he wrote "John Potter born in England, wife in Scotland, son William Potter born New Jersey."

We know of only 3 children of John Potter:

P1.William Potter (1767–1842) married Catherine Freeman where
P2.Samuel Potter (unmarried)
P3.Hannah Potter (ca 1772–1854) married Samuel Vail

Various records indicate that John was in New Jersey until at least 1772, then moved to Fayette County, PA before 1793, and in 1798 went on to Coitsville, OH, at the PA line near Youngstown, OH. John Potter paid taxes there in 1801, 1803, 1807, 1811. John Potter is listed in the 1820 census of Coitsville. Since he lived until after 1820, and his 1830 son William was born in 1767, it seems likely that he was born (in England) about 1730–1745.

William Potter married Catherine Freeman (Caty). He died on 27 Feb 1842 age 75 in Coitsville, OH (at the PA border near Youngstown). Probate record has

> POTTER, WILLIAM, late of Coitsville. Admr.: Edward Potter; bond $1600; security Jacob H. Baldwin, Daniel Brown; appraisers: John Stewart, John R. Jacobs, James Milligan (vii p323) April 1842. Inventory 20 May 1842: widows's property by law (includes Family Bible); sale 24 June 1842, totals 366.62... etc.

In this family Bible of John's son William is written "A memorandum of Ages". At the head of the list appears

> William Potter Born March 13th In the Year of our lord 1767. Was Married May 11th 1788 to Caty Freeman. Caty Freeman Born Oct 7th 1768 ... Edward Potter was Born Sept. 20th 1793 ...

Catherine Freeman Potter was born in NJ according to the 1850 census (she died in 1851). The families are mentioned in the History of Trumbull & Mahoning Counties of Ohio by H. Z. Williams, 1882, where on page 363 appears

> MRS. EDWARD POTTER, a venerable lady formerly of Youngstown, but now residing in Trumbull County, says that in 1798 her late husband, then a boy about 5 years old, came here with his parents ...

Thus Edward Potter, son of William, was born about 1793 according to his widow.

The Family Bible of Edward Potter's daughter Catherine Potter Wilson has been preserved, and in it is the entry

> Edward Potter was born Fayette County Pennsylvania, Sept. 20th 1793.

This entry is confirmed by the 1850 census of Warren Twp., Trumbull Co., which has as head of a family

POTTER, EDWARD, age 56, born PA, farmer.

Hannah Potter, who married Samuel Vail, is found in the 1850 census of Coshocton County, Ohio in the household a Beal family. She is given as Hannah Vail, age 78, born NJ. From her age we conclude she was born about 1772. We know that Hannah had a daughter Sarah, and that a Sarah Vail did marry Jesse Beal in 1820 in Coshocton County, so evidently the elderly Hannah Potter Vail was in the home of a relative, listed as Ekiah (?) Beal, female, age 70, born PA. The pieces of the puzzle fit together when we learn that Edward Potter (see above), was in Coshocton County visiting his aunt Hannah Vail when he met and married in 1824 Lucy Austin, a young school teacher at that central Ohio location.

From the records of two of his children, therefore, we conclude that JOHN POTTER was living in New Jersey when his children were born in 1767 and 1772, moved to Fayette County PA after 1772 and went to the Youngstown, Ohio area in 1798. At least one of his children, William, was living in Fayette County in 1793 when the grandson Edward Potter was born there.

POTTERS AND VAILS IN NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA IN THE 1700s

We have been unable to identify our John Potter in New Jersey, nor have we found the name of his wife. John's son William (born 1767 in NJ) married Catherine Freeman (born 1768 in NJ). It seems possible that study of the Freeman family might indicate where in New Jersey all these people lived, but no success so far. Likewise, records of the family of Samuel Vail (born about 1775 in PA) might show where Hannah Potter (born 1772 in NJ) came from. No real success, but some tantalizing clues (see below).

Captain John Potter

We looked for our John Potter in Fayette County, PA. By a striking coincidence, we found a well-known Capt. John Potter (1748-1826) in Wharton Twp. of Fayette Co., PA, a Revolutionary soldier in Elizabeth, New Jersey (!) who moved in 1787 to Pennsylvania where he spent the rest of his life. Only 11 of his 19 children by 4 wives lived to maturity; no William or Hannah among them. He was an interesting character: wheelwright, innkeeper, whiskey distiller, bridge builder, justice of the peace, author, theologian; but he was not "our" John Potter.

It is possible, but not likely, that our John Potter was a cousin of Captain John Potter. The Captain's son-in-law Moses Cushman, husband of Mary Potter, was mentioned in the mid-1800s diary of Lucy Austin Potter, wife of our John's grandson Edward Potter; they were acquainted, possibly cousins. Moses Cushman is buried in Old North Cemetery at Hubbard just north of Youngstown, within 15 miles of the areas where our Potters lived near Youngstown. Shirley Potter Drain, a descendant of Capt. John Potter, has sent a great deal of data on that family, indicating that he was third in a series of John Potters all born in New Jersey: John (1673-); John (1705-1780) who married Jemima Thompson; and Captain John (1748-1826). Captain John's uncles are not given, so the question of a possible first cousin named John cannot be answered. However, if my father's tradition is reliable, our John was born in England and Captain John's family goes way back, to 1673 in New Jersey, earlier in Connecticut.

Our John Potter was probably in the 1790 "census" of the United States, but he could have been in either NJ or PA at that time. Unfortunately, the 1790 census of New Jersey has not survived. In southwestern Pennsylvania in 1790 were the following heads of families:

Potter, John	Fayette Co. Wharton twp [the Capt.]	family of 6 (1m, 1m<16, 4f)
Potter, Jno.	Washington Co.	family of 13 (2m, 6 m<16, 5f)
Potter, John	Westmoreland Co.	family of 3 (1m, 2f)

Fayette County was formed out of Westmoreland in 1783. The John Potter in Westmoreland County may well have been our John, with his wife and unmarried daughter Hannah, then aged 18; son William already married and not in the household.

Tax records of New Jersey

Although the 1790 census is not extant, there do exist tax records for the period 1778-1780. The only John Potters taxed in New Jersey are in various townships of Essex County; 6 of the 7 were taxed in Elizabeth Township where Captain John's family were. But this may have little bearing on our problem, since John Potter, born in England as indicated by my father's tradition, probably went to Fayette County PA before 1778, and his father, name unknown, would if living presumably be in England, not New Jersey.

Samuel Vail

Our study of Vail origins was a little more productive, but still leaves some gaps. We have been able to trace descendants of Hannah Potter Vail who lived in Coshocton Co., OH. Her son Samuel P. Vail married Wealthy Farwell in Keene, Coshocton County, in 1838, and the family removed to Frederick, Schuyler Co., IL in 1843. The 1872 Atlas of Schuyler County has a section "Old Settlers of Schuyler County" in which is a paragraph about the Vail settler:

> Samuel P. Vail was born in Alleghany County, Pa., October 8th 1803. His father, Samuel Vail, was born in Pennsylvania in 1780; his [the father's] vocation was that of a boot and shoe manufacturer. At the age of twenty five he [the father] married Miss Hannah Potter; four of her brothers were in the army of Independence. They engaged in several of the principal battles of the revolution. The British soldiers destroyed most all of her father's property, such as the personal effects belonging to a farmer. The father of Samuel P. had a family of five children, of which he is the second. His father emigrated to Ohio in 1803, settling in Coshocton county, where he carried on his trade in the village of Coshocton. He died at his residence in that place in 1836; his wife, the mother of Samuel P., survived him until 1854.....

Samuel P. Vail's middle name was no doubt Potter, his mother's maiden name; it is known that his eldest son was named Edward Potter Vail, a circuit judge in Decatur, IL. There is a slight discrepancy here; according to the article Samuel Vail was married at age 25 (hence in 1805) but ~~son~~ Samuel P. was born on 8 Oct 1803 as the second son. It seems likely that the article was in error and Samuel Vail was born about 1770–1775, not 1780; his wife Hannah was born about 1772. Allegheny County is close to Fayette county and Samuel Vail could easily have known the Potter family.

Other Potter families

We could find no connections with the well-researched families of Deacon Samuel Potter (to New Jersey 1678), or of Marmaduke Potter (to New Jersey 1686).

Hannah and her Brothers

None of this gives a clue as to where in New Jersey our John Potter came from. My father knew only of two sons: William (his ancestor) and Samuel who died unmarried. There is no tradition in the family that Hannah had brothers who fought in the Revolution, although the Illinois article is definite about this. The writer in 1872 had access to the memories of Hannah Potter Vail's son, born 25 years after the Revolution and still living, who could be expected to know about his four uncles.

Hannah's military brothers, if any, must have been born before about 1765 at the latest, hence would have been her older brothers. The Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files list includes 4 Potters: [illegible]

> Amos, NJ Line, S1075. appl 17 Aug 1832 Essex Co NJ aged 74, sol's bro Jacob Potter of Essex Co NJ made aff'dt in 1833 & referred to his uncle Capt Samuel Potter who lived near him for 20 yrs & also refers to Isaac Potter the son of Capt Samuel Potter.
> Jacob, Cont & NJ Line, S3711, sol was b 20 Aug 1755 in Essex Co NJ & he lived there at enl & he appl there 17 Aug 1832, sol had enl with his bro Amos Potter & had srv under Capt Samuel Potter, Capt J.R. Potter & Lt David Potter, sol referred to his wife & "boys" but gave no names.
> Joseph, NJ Line, S40283, appl 9 Jun 1818 Butler Co OH aged 69, in 1829 sol had no family.
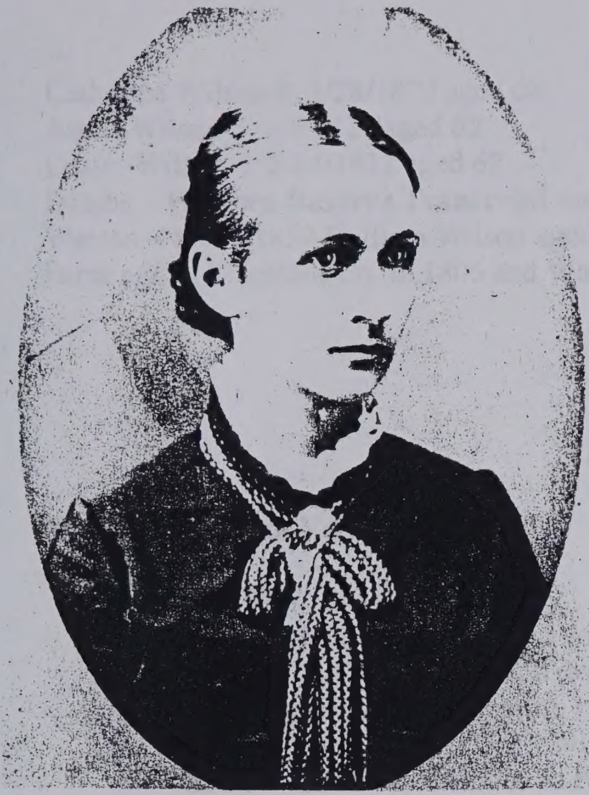
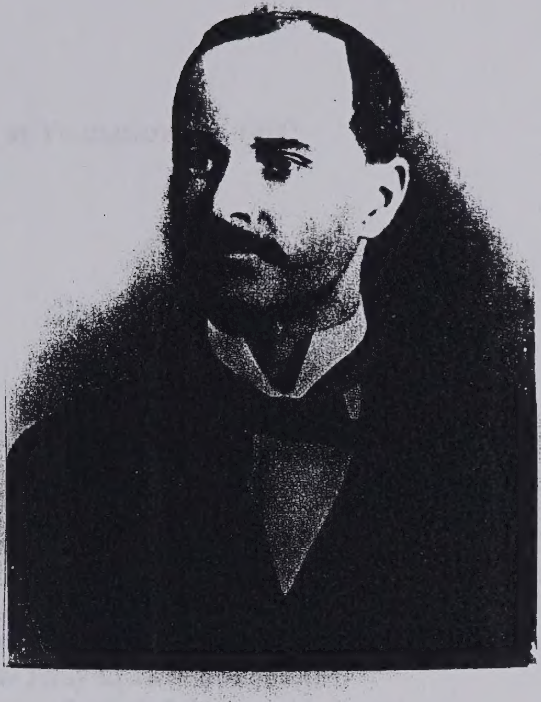
> Joseph, NJ Line, R8373, appl 16 Feb 1848 Delaware Co OH aged 90, sol stated he lived "between" Essex & Middlesex Cos in NJ but enlisted in Middlesex Co NJ.

Of these, Amos and Jacob were sons of Daniel Potter and grandsons of Deacon Samuel Potter; strangely, they did have a sister Hannah, who died 1776 age 23. The first Joseph Potter was probably among the many descendants of Deacon Samuel who went to Butler Co., OH. The second Joseph was probably from the area of Woodbridge, NJ (a place from which a John Vail, born 1770, went to Coshocton Co, OH; his spouse was named Hannah). No known connection. It is possible that John Potter's son Samuel, listed by my father as unmarried, might have been one of Hannah's soldier brothers.

Hannah's brothers were surely born in New Jersey, and the impression gained from the Illinois article is that their father, John Potter, was a farmer in what must have been New Jersey. Just possibly the brothers could have enlisted in Pennsylvania, perhaps Allegheny County where Hannah's future husband Samuel Vail lived.



Ella Mary Potter (1856 - 1897)



Henry Ardeen Miller (1854 - 1937)

It was during that first summer in Lancaster (in 1866) that I became acquainted with the very pretty girl who was afterward to become mother of my children. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Potter, Ella's parents, had come to Lancaster Mo. from Ohio in 1864 when she was eight years old, so that she was only ten when I first saw her. They were living on a farm owned by Mr. Potter near Tippecanoe, two and a half miles southeast of Lancaster. "Old Tip", as it was generally called, had been a sizable little town many years before the War.... When I first came to Lancaster there were still some remains of the old town of "Tip", such as old cellars and tumbledown warehouses.... As there was not a good school at Tippecanoe, Mr. Potter sent his daughter Ella to Lancaster, where she boarded with the family of Dr. Rockwell and went to the Lancaster school. Dr. Rockwell's house was just east of where Capt. Cutler lived, with a vacant lot between them, and on this vacant lot there was a pile of old lumber and logs, the remains of an old torn-down house. My first recollection of Ella is when we played together on moonlight nights in the summer of 1866 on this pile of old lumber. We were both small, barefoot children; she was ten and I was just past twelve years old. I cannot remember what we played, but think it was mostly story-telling, for we were both good readers for our ages, liked stories and had good memories. She was a very pretty girl, straight and well-formed, a little demure in her manner, with an oval face, big eyes, and long curls; and I thought she was just about the nicest thing I had ever seen. ....(In 1870) there was a big dance at Lancaster on the night of the Fourth of July and I had been accepted as a suitable partner to take her to the dance. One of my friends, "Doc" Hays, also had a girl living at "Tip" so we pooled our resources, secured a double rig and took both girls to the dance that night. We had a fine time and danced till broad daylight.... The following winter (1871) we became engaged, although we were entirely too young to think of such a thing.... While the courtship was to continue for over four years our engagement was never broken off -- not even a quarrel endangered it --and we were married soon after I reached my majority, in 1875.

Fairfield, PA. 17320

Dear Roena,

Received your packet and yes, those brown envelopes are wonderful! Enjoyed reading all the data you sent, thank you! I did not have any of the land maps. I did make copies of deeds signed by Wm. Potter when we visited Trumbull Co., last spring. Your maps make the picture complete. Looks like you've had contact with Franklin Miller Jr., in Gambier, OH.? In 1992 we corresponded, I sent him my family group sheets and info on my grandmother's Wilson family.

In the DAR file you sent, I have trouble connecting the hero (John Potter,Jr.), to our William Potter? The DAR paper states, JP,Jr. was born Nov-1748 in NJ. Our William was born March-1767 in NJ. JP,Jr. would have been 18 years old? JP,Jr.'s first marriage is listed as 11-4-1772, to Hepzebath Allison, died 1777. Who was the mother of our William in 1767? Have you seen the NJ source documents? Do you think hero, John Potter, Jr, is our John Potter who lived in Trumbull Co., 1801,etc (the tailor?). Returning to Fayette Co., PA. before his death in 1826? The Samuel Potter, Sr., mentioned in the DAR record, was a brother to our William Potter? Is that what you make of this?

Sorry to hear your brother is in the hospital. Do you get to visit with him often or is Martinsburg, W.VA. quite a distance from where you live? How are you doing, with all the bad storms you've had this winter? It isn't hard to understand why my grandmother moved to CA. in 1907! We're so spoiled here in CA., babies, compared to what you must endure each winter. It never snows here, if we want to see snow, we drive 75 miles up into the mountains! It already feels like spring, the daffodils are almost through blooming. My tomato seeds have sprouted, temp. may still drop at night, so plants can't be put in the ground yet. Thank you for answering my letter. Write when you can, & let me know what you think about the DAR record?

Sincerely,

Marian

P.S. I'll send another packet of material in a week or so - wanted to get this off about DAR, etc? Marian.

P.JOHN POTTER    b. England (tradition); was a farmer in NJ, where son William was born 1767 and dau Hannah was born ca 1772.
 | Probably in Westmoreland Co, PA by 1790; two children of son William were born in neighboring Fayette Co. 1793 and 1796.
 | John Potter came to Coitsville, OH, near Youngstown, in 1798 with son and several grandchildren (1801, 1807, 1811 poll
 | books; an 1882 history of Trumbull Co. states: "The first tailor was John Potter, a very early settler".
 | He died after 1820 (census record shows John Potter at Coitsville in 1820.)
 | m.        The wife of John Potter was born in Scotland (tradition) -- name unknown
 | Some background on John Potter's children is found in the mention of John's daughter Hannah Potter Vail (P3) in
 | the Old Settlers section of the 1872 Atlas of Schuyler County, IL. Regarding her husband Samuel Vail, it is stated that
 |     ".... he married Miss Hannah Potter; four of her brothers were in the army of Independence. They were engaged in
 |     several of the principal battles of the revolution. The British soldiers destroyed most all of her father's property,
 |     such as the personal effects belonging to a farmer."
 | Since we know that Hannah was born about 1772 in NJ (1850 census Coshocton Co., OH), her revolutionary brothers
 | would have been older than she. In 1902 FM Sr listed Hannah and only 2 brothers: William and Samuel [said to be unmarried].
 | It seems that Samuel and 3 other brothers were very young soldiers, born between perhaps 1755 and 1765.

P.JOHN POTTER b. England (tradition); was a farmer in NJ, where son William was born 1767 and dau Hannah was born ca 1772.
| Probably in Westmoreland Co, PA by 1790; two children of son William were born in neighboring Fayette Co. 1793 and 1796.
| John Potter came to Coitsville, OH, near Youngstown, in 1798 with son and several grandchildren (1801, 1807, 1811 poll
| books; an 1882 history of Trumbull Co. states: "The first tailor was John Potter, a very early settler".
| He died after 1820 (census record shows John Potter at Coitsville in 1820.)
| m. The wife of John Potter was born in Scotland (tradition) -- name unknown
| Some background on John Potter's children is found in the mention of John's daughter Hannah Potter Vail (P3) in
| the Old Settlers section of the 1872 Atlas of Schuyler County, IL. Regarding her husband Samuel Vail, it is stated that
| ".... he married Miss Hannah Potter; four of her brothers were in the army of Independence. They were engaged in
| several of the principal battles of the revolution. The British soldiers destroyed most all of her father's property,
| such as the personal effects belonging to a farmer."
| Since we know that Hannah was born about 1772 in NJ (1850 census Coshocton Co., OH), her revolutionary brothers
| would have been older than she. In 1902 FM Sr listed Hannah and only 2 brothers: William and Samuel [said to be unmarried].
| It seems that Samuel and 3 other brothers were very young soldiers, born between perhaps 1755 and 1765.

P3.HANNAH POTTER (prob. b ca 1772 in NJ; d 1854 per 1872 Atlas of Schuyler Co. IL). Her brother William was b 1767 in NJ.
| m.SAMUEL VAIL (b ca 1775 in PA, d 1836 Coshocton Co. OH) Schuyler Co IL Atlas gives birth as 1780 but hard to reconcile
| with birth of son Samuel P. He was a boot and shoe manufacturer, who emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803.
| It is stated that he had 5 children of whom Samuel P. was 2nd, born 8 Oct 1803 in Allegheny Co., PA.
| Samuel Vail emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803 when son Samuel P. was an infant and died there in 1836.
| We know that Hannah Potter Vail died in 1854. We have not proved that she was the Hannah Vail listed in the 1850
| Coshocton Co. census, age 78, in the home of a Beal. However, we know that Hannah Potter Vail had a daughter Sarah,
| and a Sarah Vail did marry Jese Beal in 1820. It may be a coincidence that LDS records show that
| John Vail, b ca 1770 in Woodbridge, NJ, d before 1850 in Mill Creek Twp, Coshocton Co., and had a spouse Hannah.
| Possibly Samuel Vail was a brother or son of John Vail who came from Youngstown to NE Tuscarawas Twp then
| John's son Solomon (Sr.) in 1815 was the 2nd settler of Mill Creek Township. Solomon Vail, Sr., died intestate;
| administered April term 1826; Solomon Vail was one security.
| Dave Marshall gives LDS record of a Solomon Vail b Woodbridge NJ, d ca 1824 -- possibly same as above.
|  The following list of Hannah Potter Vail's children includes several that are conjectured based on census and
|  other records of Coshocton and Holmes counties, and a Tidball history by Barbara Tidball of Oakland, CA.
|  Her address (in 1994) is 6178 Estates Dr., Oakland, CA 94611 510-339-0226.
|  Records of Decatur, IL and Schuyler Co., IL have also been consulted for the Samuel P. Vail family.
| In 1902 FM Sr listed children of Samuel Vail as Samuel, Solomon, Sarah, and Grace, but gave no spouses.
P31.SOLOMON VAIL (b ca 1800) Could be named for his uncle Solomon Vail, Sr., presumed brother of Samuel Vail.

P32.SAMUEL P. VAIL (8 Oct 1803 = 25 Aug 1884). Schuyler Co. IL History says he was born in Allegheny Co., PA and his father
| emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803, evidently with Samuel P. an infant. Family tradition is that Samuel P. Vail
| was in the grocery business in Franklin (what state?), and that they were originally from Keene, NH.

Samuel P. Vail bought land in Schuyler Co., IL 1843. He died at Frederick, IL in 1884.
m.WEALTHY B.FARWELL (b 24 Mar 1818 Keene, NH; d. 28 May 1890 in Decatur, IL) on 26 Nov 1837
d/o Robert & Polly Farwell of Keene, Coshocton Co., OH. Their 2nd child Carrie was born ca 1844 in Illinois (1860 census).
However, her death record states she was in 1890 resident in the State only 42 years (seems to be in error).

An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

> Mrs. Wealthy Vail, widow of the late Samuel P. Vail, an early resident of Frederick, Ill. died May 28 at the residence of her son, Judge E. P. Vail of Decatur. Mrs. Vail was the daughter of Robert Farwell of Keene, Ohio, who migrated to the west in 1854. Samuel P. Vail was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Tidball of Millersburg.

Removed to Frederick, Schuyler Co. IL on 13 Jun 1853; farmer and stock raiser. They had 6 ch, 4 of them living ca 1880.
1865 census shows 1F 1-10; 1M 11-20; 1F 11-20; 1M 21-30; 1F 41-50; 1M 61-70. 1880 census has a Polly B Vail age 22.
The following list of 6 children is consistent with 1860 and 1865 census data

P321.ROBERT F.VAIL (chr. 19 Jun 1841) at Keene, Coshocton County, OH (Presbyterian church). Age 30 in 1870 census
P322.CARRIE VAIL (b ca 1844 in IL) Age 16 in 1860 census (girl, 11-20 in 1865 census)
P323.EDWARD POTTER VAIL (30 Jul 1849 = 3 May 1933) Born Frederick, Schuyler Co., IL; d Los Angeles, CA. He was a circuit judge in Decatur, IL 1888-1902, moved to Chicago 1901; removed to South Pasadena, CA 1925. ---<5 ch>
m.CARRIE MAE PUTMAN (d 17 Oct 1926 in South Pasadena, CA)
P324.ALLICE VAIL (b ca 1852; age 8 in 1860 census)
P325.----- VAIL (not in 1880 census) From 1872 Atlas, this child, also Robert, Carrie, or Allice, probably died before 1872
P326.POLLY B. VAIL (b ca 1857) (age 3 in 1860 census, age 22 in 1880 census of the Samuel P. and Wealthy F. Vail household)

P33.SARAH VAIL (b ca 1798) Reasonable dates would make her older than Samuel P. Vail.
We assume that Hannah Vail living in Beal household in 1850 was Hannah Potter Vail. She could have been wid. of a John Vail m.JESE BEAL on 12 Sep 1820 Estate of Jesse Beals was adm. by Solomon Vail (Jr?) about 1838-1844 at Coshocton, OH with Franklin Farwell as one security. In 1850 census Hannah Vail, age 78, was in a Beal household headed by Ekiah? Beal (female) age 70, possibly Sarah's mother-in-law; also in household were William Beal, 21, E.J. Beal (female), age 19 and Julia Beal, age 16.

P34.GRACE ANN VAIL (b ca 1808 in Ohio) age 52 in 1860 census of Schuyler Co., IL m.CHARLES FARWELL (b ca 1809 in NH) on 16 Nov 1834 age 51 in 1860 census of Schuyler Co., IL
P341.PULASKA FARWELL (b ca 1836 in Ohio) age 24 in 1860 census of Schuyler Co., IL
This is a male; probably Pulaski. We suppose Elizabeth in the same household is his wife.
m.ELIZABETH ----- (b ca 1840 in Ohio) age 20 in 1860 census of Schuyler Co., IL ---<1 son>

 only one of the following 3 is likely to be the 5th child of Samuel Vail and Hannah Potter:

P35.ISAAC VAIL (b ca 1806)
m.JULIANN RICHARDS on 6 Nov 1831 in Coshocton Co.

P36.SALLY VAIL (b ca 1808)
m.WILLIAM RANPEW on 15 Aug 1831 in Coshocton Co. [IGI clearly has m 15 Aug 1813 in 2 places -- error?]

P37.MARY VAIL (b ca 1816)
m.RODRIC JOHNSTON on 2 Jun 1840 in Coshocton Co.

Notes:

John P. Wilson settled in Mill Creek Township in 1817; he had married a sister of Solomon Vail and like him had come from Mahoning Co.
The History of Coshocton County states that Solomon Vail and his brother-in-law Benjamin Firbee built the first power mill in the area which later became Mill Creek Township.
There were two Solomon Vails in the county. We believe the one mentioned above was Solomon Vail, Sr. whose estate was probated Apr. 1826. Probably it was Solomon Vail Jr. [P31] who in 1825 was appointed guardian of minor children of Robert Culbertson (d 1815) whose father was Alexander Culbertson and whose son Alexander married Elizabeth Wilson in 1837.

Among marriage records in Coshocton County, OH are the following:
Benjamin FORBY to Margaret VAIL 1812
marr. by Lewis Vail, JP; he was in southern Coshocton Co. before 1811, probably brother of John.
Solomon VAIL to Jane PEOPLES 1813

An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

Mrs. Wealthy Vail, widow of the late Samuel P. Vail, an early resident of Frederick, Ill. died May 28 at the residence of her son, Judge E. P. Vail of Decatur. Mrs. Vail was the daughter of Robert Farwell of Keene, Ohio, who emigrated to the west in 1854. Samuel P. Vail was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Tidball of Millersburg.

JOHN POTTER

These sheets were prepared in April 1995 in order to put in one place as much as we know about this rather shadowy ancestor of our branch of a Potter family. My grandmother, Ella Potter Miller, was a great-granddaughter of this person.

... Franklin Miller, Jr., Box 313, Gambier, OH 43022

In 1902 my father, Judge Franklin Miller of St. Louis, MO, made a chart of his family, in which he wrote "John Potter born in England, wife in Scotland, son William Potter born New Jersey."

We know of only 3 children of John Potter:

P1.William Potter (1767–1842) married Catherine Freeman
P2.Samuel Potter (unmarried)
P3.Hannah Potter (ca 1772–1854) married Samuel Vail

Various records indicate that John was in New Jersey until at least 1772, then moved to Fayette County, PA before 1793, and in 1798 went on to Coitsville, OH, at the PA line near Youngstown, OH. John Potter paid taxes there in 1801, 1803, 1807, 1811. John Potter is listed in the 1820 census of Coitsville. Since he lived until after 1820, and his son William was born in 1767, it seems likely that he was born (in England) about 1730–1745.

William Potter married Catherine Freeman (Caty). He died on 27 Feb 1842 age 75 in Coitsville, OH (at the PA border near Youngstown). Probate record has

> POTTER, WILLIAM, late of Coitsville. Admr.: Edward Potter; bond $1600; security Jacob H. Baldwin, Daniel Brown; appraisers: John Stewart, John R. Jacobs, James Milligan (vii p323) April 1842. Inventory 20 May 1842: widows's property by law (includes Family Bible); sale 24 June 1842, totals 366.62... etc.

In this family Bible of John's son William is written "A memorandum of Ages". At the head of the list appears

> William Potter Born March 13th In the Year of our lord 1767. Was Married May 11th 1788 to Caty Freeman. Caty Freeman Born Oct 7th 1768 ... Edward Potter was Born Sept. 20th 1793 ...

Catherine Freeman Potter was born in NJ according to the 1850 census (she died in 1851). The families are mentioned in the History of Trumbull & Mahoning Counties of Ohio by H. Z. Williams, 1882, where on page 363 appears

> MRS. EDWARD POTTER, a venerable lady formerly of Youngstown, but now residing in Trumbull County, says that in 1798 her late husband, then a boy about 5 years old, came here with his parents ...

Thus Edward Potter, son of William, was born about 1793 according to his widow.

The Family Bible of Edward Potter's daughter Catherine Potter Wilson has been preserved, and in it is the entry

> Edward Potter was born Fayette County Pennsylvania, Sept. 20th 1793.

entered in RootsMagic
Ro

This entry is confirmed by the 1850 census of Warren Twp., Trumbull Co., which has as head of a family
POTTER, EDWARD, age 56, born PA, farmer.

Hannah Potter, who married Samuel Vail, is found in the 1850 census of Coshocton County, Ohio in the household a Beal family. She is given as Hannah Vail, age 78, born NJ. From her age we conclude she was born about 1772. We know that Hannah had a daughter Sarah, and that a Sarah Vail did marry Jesse Beal in 1820 in Coshocton County, so evidently the elderly Hannah Potter Vail was in the home of a relative, listed as Ekiah (?) Beal, female, age 70, born PA. The pieces of the puzzle fit together when we learn that Edward Potter (see above), was in Coshocton County visiting his aunt Hannah Vail when he met and married in 1824 Lucy Austin, a young school teacher at that central Ohio location.

From the records of two of his children, therefore, we conclude that JOHN POTTER was living in New Jersey when his children were born in 1767 and 1772, moved to Fayette County PA after 1772 and went to the Youngstown, Ohio area in 1798. At least one of his children, William, was living in Fayette County in 1793 when the grandson Edward Potter was born there.

POTTERS AND VAILS IN NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA IN THE 1700s

We have been unable to identify our John Potter in New Jersey, nor have we found the name of his wife. John's son William (born 1767 in NJ) married Catherine Freeman (born 1768 in NJ). It seems possible that study of the Freeman family might indicate where in New Jersey all these people lived, but no success so far. Likewise, records of the family of Samuel Vail (born about 1775 in PA) might show where Hannah Potter (born 1772 in NJ) came from. No real success, but some tantalizing clues (see below).

Captain John Potter

We looked for our John Potter in Fayette County, PA. By a striking coincidence, we found a well-known Capt. John Potter (1748-1826) in Wharton Twp. of Fayette Co., PA, a Revolutionary soldier in Elizabeth, New Jersey (!) who moved in 1787 to Pennsylvania where he spent the rest of his life. Only 11 of his 19 children by 4 wives lived to maturity; no William or Hannah among them. He was an interesting character: wheelwright, innkeeper, whiskey distiller, bridge builder, justice of the peace, author, theologian; but he was not "our" John Potter.

It is possible, but not likely, that our John Potter was a cousin of Captain John Potter. The Captain's son-in-law Moses Cushman, husband of Mary Potter, was mentioned in the mid-1800s diary of Lucy Austin Potter, wife of our John's grandson Edward Potter; they were acquainted, possibly cousins. Moses Cushman is buried in Old North Cemetery at Hubbard just north of Youngstown, within 15 miles of the areas where our Potters lived near Youngstown. Shirley Potter Drain, a descendant of Capt. John Potter, has sent a great deal of data on that family, indicating that he was third in a series of John Potters all born in New Jersey: John (1673-); John (1705-1780) who married Jemima Thompson; and Captain John (1748-1826). Captain John's uncles are not given, so the question of a possible first cousin named John cannot be answered. However, if my father's tradition is reliable, our John was born in England and Captain John's family goes way back, to 1673 in New Jersey, earlier in Connecticut.

Our John Potter was probably in the 1790 "census" of the United States, but he could have been in either NJ or PA at that time. Unfortunately, the 1790 census of New Jersey has not survived. In southwestern Pennsylvania in 1790 were the following heads of families:

Potter, John	Fayette Co. Wharton twp [the Capt.]	family of 6 (1m, 1m<16, 4f)
Potter, Jno.	Washington Co.	family of 13 (2m, 6 m<16, 5f)
Potter, John	Westmoreland Co.	family of 3 (1m, 2f) ✓

Fayette County was formed out of Westmoreland in 1783. The John Potter in Westmoreland County may well have been our John, with his wife and unmarried daughter Hannah, then aged 18; son William already married and not in the household.

Tax records of New Jersey

Although the 1790 census is not extant, there do exist tax records for the period 1778-1780. The only John Potters taxed in New Jersey are in various townships of Essex County; 6 of the 7 were taxed in Elizabeth Township where Captain John's family were. But this may have little bearing on our problem, since John Potter, born in England as indicated by my father's tradition, probably went to Fayette County PA before 1778, and his father, name unknown, would if living presumably be in England, not New Jersey.

Samuel Vail

Our study of Vail origins was a little more productive, but still leaves some gaps. We have been able to trace descendants of Hannah Potter Vail who lived in Coshocton Co., OH. Her son Samuel P. Vail married Wealthy Farwell in Keene, Coshocton County, in 1838, and the family removed to Frederick, Schuyler Co., IL in 1843. The 1872 Atlas of Schuyler County has a section "Old Settlers of Schuyler County" in which is a paragraph about the Vail settler:

> Samuel P. Vail was born in Alleghany County, Pa., October 8th 1803. His father, Samuel Vail, was born in Pennsylvania in 1780; his [the father's] vocation was that of a boot and shoe manufacturer. At the age of twenty five he [the father] married Miss Hannah Potter; four of her brothers were in the army of Independence. They engaged in several of the principal battles of the revolution. The British soldiers destroyed most all of her father's property, such as the personal effects belonging to a farmer. The father of Samuel P. had a family of five children, of which he is the second. His father emigrated to Ohio in 1803, settling in Coshocton county, where he carried on his trade in the village of Coshocton. He died at his residence in that place in 1836; his wife, the mother of Samuel P., survived him until 1854.....

P32.SAMUEL P. VAIL (8 Oct 1803 = 25 Aug 1884). Schuyler Co. IL History says he was born in Allegheny Co., PA and his father emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803, evidently with Samuel P. an infant. Family tradition is that Samuel P. Vail was in the grocery business in Franklin (what state?), and that they were originally from Keene, NH.
Samuel P. Vail bought land in Schuyler Co., IL 1843. He died at Frederick, IL in 1884.

m.WEALTHY B.FARWELL (b 24 Mar 1818 Keene, NH; d. 28 May 1890 in Decatur, IL) on 26 Nov 1837
d/o Robert & Polly Farwell of Keene, Coshocton Co., OH. Their 2nd child Carrie was born ca 1844 in Illinois (1860 census).
However, her death record states she was in 1890 resident in the State only 42 years (seems to be in error).

An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

> Mrs. Wealthy Vail, widow of the late Samuel P. Vail, an early resident of Frederick, Ill. died May 28 at the residence of her son, Judge E. P. Vail of Decatur. Mrs. Vail was the daughter of Robert Farwell of Keene, Ohio, who migrated to the west in 1854. Samuel P. Vail was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Tidball of Millersburg.

Removed to Frederick, Schuyler Co. IL on 13 Jun 1853; farmer and stock raiser. They had 6 ch, 4 of them living ca 1880.
1865 census shows 1F 1-10; 1M 11-20; 1F 11-20; 1M 21-30; 1F 41-50; 1M 61-70. 1880 census has a Polly B Vail age 22.
The following list of 6 children is consistent with 1860 and 1865 census data

P321.ROBERT F.VAIL (chr. 19 Jun 1841) at Keene, Coshocton County, OH (Presbyterian church). Age 30 in 1870 census

P322.CARRIE VAIL (b ca 1844 in IL) Age 16 in 1860 census (girl, 11-20 in 1865 census)

P323.EDWARD POTTER VAIL (30 Jul 1849 = 3 May 1933) Born Frederick, Schuyler Co., IL; d Los Angeles, CA. He was a circuit judge in Decatur, IL 1888-1902, moved to Chicago 1901; removed to South Pasadena, CA 1925.

m.CARRIE MAE PUTMAN (d 17 Oct 1926 in South Pasadena, CA)

P3231.ROBERT PUTMAN VAIL (13 Nov 1877 = 7 Sep 1964) A lawyer in Decatur, IL

P37.MARY VAIL (b ca 1816)

m.RODRIC JOHNSTON on 2 Jun 1840 in Coshocton Co.

Notes:

John P. Wilson settled in Mill Creek Township in 1817; he had married a sister of Solomon Vail and like him had come from Mahoning Co.
The History of Coshocton County states that Solomon Vail and his brother-in-law Benjamin Firbee built the first power mill in the area which later became Mill Creek Township.
There were two Solomon Vails in the county. We believe the one mentioned above was Solomon Vail, Sr. whose estate was probated Apr. 1826. Probably it was Solomon Vail Jr. [P31] who in 1825 was appointed guardian of minor children of Robert Culbertson (d 1815) whose father was Alexander Culbertson and whose son Alexander married Elizabeth Wilson in 1837.

Among marriage records in Coshocton County, OH are the following:
Benjamin FORBY to Margaret VAIL 1812
marr. by Lewis Vail, JP; he was in southern Coshocton Co. before 1811, probably brother of John.
Solomon VAIL to Jane PEOPLES 1813

An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

> Mrs. Wealthy Vail, widow of the late Samuel P. Vail, an early resident of Frederick, Ill. died May 28 at the residence of her son, Judge E. P. Vail of Decatur. Mrs. Vail was the daughter of Robert Farwell of Keene, Ohio, who emigrated to the west in 1854. Samuel P. Vail was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Tidball of Millersburg.

P3.HANNAH POTTER  (prob. b ca 1772 in NJ; d 1854 per 1872 Atlas of Schuyler Co. IL). Her brother William was b 1767 in NJ.
 |  m.SAMUEL VAIL  (b ca 1775 in PA, d 1836 Coshocton Co. OH)  Schuyler Co IL Atlas gives birth as 1780 but hard to reconcile
 |  with birth of son Samuel P. He was a boot and shoe manufacturer, who emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803.
 |  It is stated that he had 5 children of whom Samuel P. was 2nd, born 8 Oct 1803 in Allegheny Co., PA.
 |  Samuel Vail emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803 when son Samuel P. was an infant and died there in 1836.
 |  We know that Hannah Potter Vail died in 1854. We have not proved that she was the Hannah Vail listed in the 1850
 |  Coshocton Co. census, age 78, in the home of a Beal. However, we know that Hannah Potter Vail had a daughter Sarah,
 |  and a Sarah Vail did marry Jese Beal in 1820.  It may be a coincidence that LDS records show that
 |  John Vail, b ca 1770 in Woodbridge, NJ, d before 1850 in Mill Creek Twp, Coshocton Co., and had a spouse Hannah.
 |  Possibly Samuel Vail was a brother or son of John Vail who came from Youngstown to NE Tuscarawas Twp then
 |  John's son Solomon (Sr.) in 1815 was the 2nd settler of Mill Creek Township. Solomon Vail, Sr., died intestate;
 |  administered April term 1826; Solomon Vail was one security.
 |  Dave Marshall gives LDS record of a Solomon Vail b Woodbridge NJ, d ca 1824 -- possibly same as above.
 |   The following list of Hannah Potter Vail's children includes several that are conjectured based on census and
 |   other records of Coshocton and Holmes counties, and a Tidball history by Barbara Tidball of Oakland, CA.
 |   Her address (in 1994) is 6178 Estates Dr., Oakland, CA 94611  510-339-0226.
 |   Records of Decatur, IL and Schuyler Co., IL have also been consulted for the Samuel P. Vail family.
 |  In 1902 FM Sr listed children of Samuel Vail as Samuel, Solomon, Sarah, and Grace, but gave no spouses.
P31.SOLOMON VAIL (b ca 1800)  Could be named for his uncle Solomon Vail, Sr., presumed brother of Samuel Vail.
 |  m.       Name of his wife not found in Coshocton County records.

P32.SAMUEL P. VAIL (8 Oct 1803 = 25 Aug 1884). Schuyler Co. IL History says he was born in Allegheny Co., PA and his father emigrated to Coshocton Co., OH in 1803, evidently with Samuel P. an infant. Family tradition is that Samuel P. Vail was in the grocery business in Franklin (what state?), and that they were originally from Keene, NH.

Samuel P. Vail bought land in Schuyler Co., IL 1843. He died at Frederick, IL in 1884.

m.WEALTHY B.FARWELL (b 24 Mar 1818 Keene, NH; d. 28 May 1890 in Decatur, IL) on 26 Nov 1837

d/o Robert & Polly Farwell of Keene, Coshocton Co., OH. Their 2nd child Carrie was born ca 1844 in Illinois (1860 census). However, her death record states she was in 1890 resident in the State only 42 years (seems to be in error).

An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

> Mrs. Wealthy Vail, widow of the late Samuel P. Vail, an early resident of Frederick, Ill. died May 28 at the residence of her son, Judge E. P. Vail of Decatur. Mrs. Vail was the daughter of Robert Farwell of Keene, Ohio, who migrated to the west in 1854. Samuel P. Vail was an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Tidball of Millersburg.

Removed to Frederick, Schuyler Co. IL on 13 Jun 1853; farmer and stock raiser. They had 6 ch, 4 of them living ca 1880.

1865 census shows 1F 1-10; 1M 11-20; 1F 11-20; 1M 21-30; 1F 41-50; 1M 61-70. 1880 census has a Polly B Vail age 22.

The following list of 6 children is consistent with 1860 and 1865 census data

P321.ROBERT F.VAIL (chr. 19 Jun 1841) at Keene, Coshocton County, OH (Presbyterian church). Age 30 in 1870 census

P322.CARRIE VAIL (b ca 1844 in IL) Age 16 in 1860 census (girl, 11-20 in 1865 census)

P323.EDWARD POTTER VAIL (30 Jul 1849 = 3 May 1933) Born Frederick, Schuyler Co., IL; d Los Angeles, CA. He was a circuit judge in Decatur, IL 1888-1902, moved to Chicago 1901; removed to South Pasadena, CA 1925.

| E.J. Beal (female), age 19 and Julia Beal, age 16.

| m.RODRIC JOHNSTON on 2 Jun 1840 in Coshocton Co.

| Notes:

| John P. Wilson settled in Mill Creek Township in 1817; he had married a sister of Solomon Vail and like him had come from Mahoning Co.

| The History of Coshocton County states that Solomon Vail and his brother-in-law Benjamin Firbee built the first power mill in the area which later became Mill Creek Township.

| There were two Solomon Vails in the county. We believe the one mentioned above was Solomon Vail, Sr. whose estate was probated Apr. 1826. Probably it was Solomon Vail Jr. [P31] who in 1825 was appointed guardian of minor children of Robert Culbertson (d 1815) whose father was Alexander Culbertson and whose son Alexander married Elizabeth Wilson in 1837.

| Among marriage records in Coshocton County, OH are the following:

| Benjamin FORBY to Margaret VAIL 1812

| marr. by Lewis Vail, JP; he was in southern Coshocton Co. before 1811, probably brother of John.

| Solomon VAIL to Jane PEOPLES 1813

| An obit in Coshocton (OH) Democratic Standard of 6-20-1890 reads:

INTRODUCTION

This work was undertaken with the idea of abstracting all extant Trumbull Co. Ohio, newspapers from the earliest date through 1870. By using Gutgesell's Guide to Ohio Newspapers and the newspaper catalogs of the Western Reserve Historical Society, Ohio Historical Society, and the Warren Public Library, it is felt that all these newspapers have been located except those in private hands. The abstractor has personally viewed all of these newspapers either in original form or on microfilm.

The abstracting was done with both the genealogist and the historian in mind. Information included in the abstract may contain: name, date, place, age, cause of death, church affiliation, military service, familial relationships, and other pertinent data. There should be no need for the genealogists to view the original newspaper for additional "vital" information. When duplicate notices were found, the more complete obituary was abstracted. Warren in Trumbull County was the most important city in the Western Reserve until the rise of Cleveland toward the middle 1800's. From the Western Reserve Chronicle, the newspaper covering the longest period (1816-1870), all obituaries have been abstracted. The other newspapers were abstracted for those of local interest. These papers contain obituaries of local people, Ohio residents, people from eastern states, former residents who have migrated westward, and a few national figures. The historian will be able to use the migration information contained to assist in the study of migration patterns, and the causes of death to supplement knowledge on health and diseases in 19th century America.

Newspapers Abstracted: Trump of Fame 1812-1816, Western Reserve Chronicle 1816-1870 (lacking Sep 1827 to Aug 1828, 1841, Jan to May 1844, 1852, Jan to Apr 1855), Warren News-letter and Trumbull County Republican 1830-1837, Liberty Herald 1843-1845, Trumbull County Whig 1848-1851, Western Reserve Transcript and Whig 1851-1854, Trumbull Democrat 1839-42 and 1850-1861, Warren Constitution 1862-1870.

SERIES

The Ohio Newspaper Abstracts series is begun with this volume. Future volumes will be published irregularly as work on future volumes is completed. It is the intent of the editor of this series to provide abstracts of all extant Ohio newspaper obituaries from the earliest date through 1870.

INDEX

An every name index has been prepared to assist the researcher All names have been indexed including those named in the abstract as well as the deceased. Females were indexed by their married names and not cross indexed by maiden name. Care should be taken to check as many different spellings of names as possible. Names appear as they were found in the newspapers, which may include some typographical errors on the part of the newspaper.

CAUSES OF DEATH

Some causes of death are listed below for the reader's information along with some explanation. An observation made during this project has been that a large number of suicides were reported in local newspapers. There are several possible explanations including sensational journalism, disallusionment with frontier life, and more often than not, an unwitnessed death more easily explained by suicide in the absence of modern medical autopsy procedures. Many diseases were highly contagious and could decimate entire families and communities.

Apoplexy--brain hemorrage, generally in older people
Cholera--
Consumption--progressive emaciation or wasting away, commonly thought of as tuberculosis, can refer to the wasting away of any organ, contributory to death with many chronic diseases.
Diptheria--called putrid sore throat, formation of a false membrane, can also affect the skin
Dysentery--similar to diarrhea, intestinal disease, inflamation of the mucous membrane
Dropsy--disease of the lower belly, brain heart or other organ
Epilepsy--
Erisepelas--St. Anthony's fire, fever and skin eruptions
Paralysis--palsy, may arise in consequence of apoplexy Measles--
Scarlet fever--scarlatina, inflamatory skin rash, fever
Scrofula--glandular tumors chiefly in the neck, turning into ulcers and leaving scars
Typhus--typhoid fever, high fever and much cerebral disturbance
Yellow fever--

Lake, the son of Daniel and Martha was born August 13, 1759 while Daniel was a soldier in the French and Indian War serving at Lake George. The child was named "Lake" in honor of this service. Lake George was named after King George III of England. England was falling out of favor with the thirteen colonies, therefore the child was named "Lake." Daniel was an incorporator of the Town of Plymouth and representative to the state legislature several times. Lake Potter was a Plymouth soldier in the Revolutionary War.
